Bangor, April 1, 1869.

Dental Card.

I wish to say a word to the Gentlemen and Ladies of Bangor and vicinity. As parents you would do more for your children than for yourselves. A gentleman in Bangor, who is fifty years old, was in my office in April and said that he would give me one hundred dollars if I would save one tooth in his mouth without extracting it. But he was too late. If a man will thus value one tooth, what should he do for his children.

Now if you cannot save your own, you can save the teeth of your children. Almost every day some father or mother will come to the office with some dear child to have me extract some aching tooth. I examine the mouth and find that the painful tooth is not a temporary but a permanent one. The parent is surprised, you are wrong, she has never had but one tooth there, she will certainly have a permanent tooth when this one is out of the way.

A very large proportion of our patrons, have never known or have forgotten, that in our first set we have but twenty teeth. And that all teeth that grow back of the twenty are permanent ones, thirty-two in all. I have extracted within the past year, seven permanent teeth for one little girl who was not eleven years old. Will you parents suffer your children to suffer for their life time by your neglect? If by neglect you have lost your natural teeth, a good editor will tell you where to go for the best artificial ones. Hundreds of people in Bangor and vicinity will endorse by their own experience all that he has said in his paper.

DR. J. K. LINCOLN.—Though we have not the pleasure of a personal acquaintance with the gentleman, yet we have reason to believe that he is a most skilful practitioner of the dental art. At least, he has made one old face in our house look young again, and has fitted, by art, a pair of jaws to masticate the food again which dame nature thought to deprive of this privilege a little too soon. We think the work and composition of the two full sets of teeth he has inserted cannot be exceled anywhere.—Rural Intelligencer.

My price now is $50 for a whole set of the best artificial teeth, $25 for a half set.

A HOME INVESTMENT.

SIX PER CENT. GOLD BONDS

OF THE

Portland and Ogdensburg

R. R. Co.

DUE IN 1900.

Free from Government Tax.

The line of this Road is from Portland, Maine, to Swanton, Vt., and is many miles the shortest communication between the Lakes and the Seaboard.

The Eastern division, upon which this mortgage is issued is now under construction from Portland to North Conway, White Mountains, a distance of sixty miles.

Forty miles are already completed, upon which trains are running. The remaining twenty miles are nearly completed, and will be ready for traffic early in July, 1871.

$1,200,000 cash subscriptions have already been expended upon the Road, and this mortgage of the unusually small amount of $13,000 per mile has been issued for the purpose of thoroughly equipping and completing the road, and covers all the real and personal property of the Company.

These very desirable Bonds are for sale at 90 and accrued interest, in currency, by

CARD.

Having become satisfied after thorough investigation, that Elastic Sponge, as now and lately manufactured, is one of the best of all the substitutes for curled hair, for many if not most uses in Upholstery, we have accepted the Agency of it, and intend to make it hereafter a specialty in our business. The objections which have been made to it and which it is well known we ourselves have thought were well founded, we have ascertained cannot be urged against the article as now perfected. The process of manufacture has been entirely remodeled under the advice and superintendence of one of the most eminent chemists of New England. New chemical and mechanical appliances have been introduced in cleansing crude Sponge, and in charging it with glycerine with such entire success, that Elastic Sponge may now be said to be chemically pure. There is absolutely nothing in it but the clean fibre of sponge and chemically pure glycerine.

The objections to Elastic Sponge being thus removed there remain its undisputed merits which certainly entitle it to be considered one of the most valuable as it is one of the most curious and interesting of late discoveries. Chief among these merits is, that it is proof against moths,—the great scourge of the business,—and against all other insects. Then its elasticity is permanent, based as it is upon the non-evaporable property of glycerine and the indestructibility of sponge fibre. We have always been satisfied upon these two points which are the essential requisites in such materials. The evidence is now equally clear that it is wholesome and sweet. It is certainly soft, easy to manipulate, and cheap enough for all except the lowest class of goods. For the cushioning of Churches, Theatres, Public Halls, Railway Stations, Omnibusses, Carriages, Steam and Horse Cars and the like, it will probably be found, everything considered, the best article in use. For all uses, and especially for Bedding, we are now prepared to recommend the public to give it a fair trial as we ourselves intend to do. We are ready also to answer inquiries, make estimates and take orders for every description of work in Sponge as well as to supply the trade the article in Bales.

AMERICAN LLOYDS OFFICE,
Burling Slip, New York,
Jan. 31, 1871.

The Register for 1871 is now ready. The January Supplements will contain the introduction to the history of the "Register." In order to supply the demand for the Exposition, an extra edition will be printed and furnished gratuitously to all parties in possession of a book called the "Record," or a book called the "American Lloyds Universal."

HARTSHORN & KING.

The American Lloyds Register, being the acknowledged standard of American surveys of shipping, approved by underwriters generally, and adopted by the Peruvian Government as a standard for the selection of ships to carry Guano, also by the California Board of Underwriters and the West India Lloyds at Havana, &c., &c., it is important to owners to have their vessels surveyed and classed in its "Register." Having appointed surveyors throughout the State of Maine, I am prepared to order or make surveys [illegible]

JAMES DUNNING'S WATCHMAN'S REGISTER.

PATENTED April 25, 1871.

This Register is the cheapest, most effective, simple, accurate, and is worked with one eighth part of the labor of any other machine for registering watchman's time known. Many eminent men have examined it and pronounce it far superior to any machine known for that purpose in this Country or in Europe. This Machine will be required to be wound up every Monday morning, and a new dial (made of cardboard) affixed, on which the watchman denotes the time accurately with a lead marker which can be seen by opening the door, as plain as the time on a small time piece.

No person interested in this machine will appreciate it so fully as the watchman himself, that is, provided he means to discharge his duty in good faith, as it will clearly show to all interested that he has done so, and that to, without any question or doubt.

The whole time occupied in noting his time through the night will not occupy one moment. The machine is graduated for the seven days in the week, but should the owner of the property watched be absent one or more days in that time and no one opens the machine it will denote the faithfulness of the watchman.

The cases are got up in good style from black walnut and would be an ornament as a piece of furniture to any room or office; it is particularly adapted to Banking houses and all corporations where they keep a watchman.

The machinery or movement is a balance wheel lever manufactured by the most celebrated clock manufacturer in the U. S. For rights, machines or circulars, direct to JAMES DUNNING (owner of the patent) or to the FARMER'S NATIONAL BANK of Bangor.

JAMES DUNNING.

Gideon is the only Hambletonian Stallion in this State.

Will make the present season at the Park House Stable, Penobscot Co. Fair Ground,

Commencing May 1st, and ending Sept. 1st, 1871

This Horse is so well known throughout the State, that any further description would be useless.

Satisfactory vouchers of his pedigree can be produced to those who desire his services, or any parties who may dispute it. I will make any man a present of $100 for his trouble, if at any time he can disprove the above pedigree.

Mares from a distance will receive the best of care. Mares kept to hay, $3 per week; Pasture, $1; Grain extra. Accidents or escapes (should any occur,) will be at the owner's risk.

Terms, twenty-five dollars for the Season.

Cash or satisfactory note, at the time of first service.

THE THOROUGH BRED TROTTING STALLION

CADMUS.

CADMUS is seven years old, is fifteen hands, 2 inches high, weighs 1025 pounds. Color a rich chestnut with fine coat. He is judged superior in all those points indispensable to the trotting horse, and when crossed with our mares, will produce just the horse wanted for general purposes. The natural gait is open and clear, with natural inclination to trot, showing a two-forty step without fitting or training.

PEDIGREE. Cadmus was bred by Daniel McMillan, Xenia, Greene Co., Southern Ohio, foaled in 1864, sire Ben Butler—recorded Scribbler, bred by the late R. A. Alexander of Kentucky; Ben Butler by imported Scythian, out of Emma Wright by imported Margrave; Scythian by Orlando, out of Scythian by Hetman Platoff; Orlando by Touchstone, &c. The dam of Cadmus was by Ohio Cadmus, sire of Pocahontas; Ohio Cadmus by American Eclipse, out of DiVernon, by imported Forrizel; American Eclipse by Duroc, out of Miller's Damsel by imported Messenger; Duroc by Sir Archy by imported Diamond, &c. Whoever will examine the above pedigree, cannot fail to find a remarkable combination of the best horse-blood in the country.

CADMUS will stand the present season at the

BANGOR HOUSE STABLE.

Terms, $25 to insure a foal.

Silver Eye

Will serve a limited number of mares at $25 to ensure a foal.

SILVER EYE is three years old this Spring, jet black color, fifteen hands, two and one-half inches high, weighs 975 pounds, fine gaited, and shows a great deal of speed for one of his age; is considered the best colt of his age in the county.

SILVER EYE is by "Gilbreth Knox," dam by "Old Eaton."

Good pasturing or stabling provided for horses from a distance on reasonable terms.

STATE NEWS.

The members of the Auburn Light Infantry recently presented each of their Lieutenants with an elegantly-mounted sword.

A few days since Mrs. Shedd of Norway fell from a scaffold in the barn breaking her left arm, and dislocated her left shoulder, bruising her face and head badly.

Mr. Cilley, landlord of the Elm House, West Farmington, was thrown from his carriage, Saturday, receiving severe bruises and fracturing a bone in one leg.

The house of Alonzo Stevens of Smithfield, was struck by lightning, Saturday, about 6½ P. M., and considerably injured. Mr. Stevens was stunned by the shock, but soon recovered.

Enoch S. Warren of Abbott, attempted to break a valuable 3 year old colt on the 30th ult. by attaching him to a harrow. Warren received a severe kick and the colt broke his leg.

Mr. Ezra Mitchell, horse shoer in Portland, was on Saturday afternoon kicked by a horse he was shoeing, receiving two bad gashes under the chin.

It is proposed by some of the citizens of Bristol, to organize an association for the purpose of erecting a monument at Pemaquid to commemorate the historic events of that locality.

The wife of Roswell S. Kent of West Mt. Vernon was thrown from her carriage by the horse taking fright, and was very seriously injured. She sustained a slight fracture of her skull and also had one rib broken.

The Sunrise says that on Friday last near night, a whirlwind passed near Fort Fairfield village, uprooting and breaking off large trees and making havoc of every thing in its track. A barn near the north end of the bridge was laid flat; the bridge itself for a few moments was in imminent danger. The shore end of the north span was moved a short distance.

DEMOCRATIC HARMONY

Some of the more crafty Democratic journals of the North like the N Y World and Boston Post have labored hard to work up an enthusiasm in the party by dilating upon the harmony produced by the adoption of the new departure They would have us believe that the Ohio platform is heartily endorsed by the party and that under its banner all the legions of the unterrified will fall into line and march forward without a murmur [illegible] There is strong evidence, however that all is not so serene in the Democratic camp and unless indications are strangely deceptive the Vallandigham programme will prove a veritable mine within the enemy's works the explosion of which will completely shatter the demoralized forces There are many points in this new creed which have already excited the most bitter wrangling between the sections of the party, and there are others like the repudiation programme which the East and other Northern papers find it convenient to pass over without mention The split is showing itself first in Ohio where the platform was adopted, it will rapidly widen as the discussion of the new departure is taken up in other States, and we anticipate a lively fight on this issue in the approaching Democratic Convention at Augusta

The Cincinnati Enquirer has come out squarely against the Vallandigham platform It recently published a letter from an old Democrat bitterly denouncing the change of front and endorses the views expressed, as follows

"It is in [illegible] reflection, but express the sentiments of the great body of the Democratic party everywhere and should meet the unqualified approval of all The great bulwarks of constitutional liberty must be [illegible] by the Democratic party And when they are abandoned the Democratic party had better disband and a new organization be formed with a new name and new principles Let not the old and honored Democratic party be clad in strange garments with the ashes of humiliation on its head and cowardice in its look Let it rather be buried in the same grave with the [illegible] and rest under a common tombstone on which shall be inscribed [illegible]"

The Columbus (Ohio) Crisis is equally severe and decided in its repudiation of the new departure assailing the platform and [illegible] from which we make the following extracts

"There are certain uneasy bodies among the [illegible] of this country who are never so [illegible] as when they are unhappy, and who while willing to sacrifice all relationship to principle for self interest totally misappreh[end] the elements of their own strength and [illegible] in their [illegible] There is a [illegible] of demagogues in Ohio who would abandon the foremost of [illegible] Success to the estimation of these gentlemen consists less in the triumph of principle than in the accumulation of paltry profits and empty honors of official position By what rule of honor or [illegible] can be coupled with the [illegible] adherence to principle we admit [illegible] To surrender [illegible] to an enemy may [illegible] to such tactics as have recently come [illegible]

Mr Vallandigham for whom this paper [illegible] any prejudice [illegible] make the most violent [illegible] of party disintegration [illegible] In [illegible] by his [illegible] force [illegible] Montgomery County [illegible] Mr Vallandigham, with transcendent boldness proposed the abandonment of every principle for which the Democracy of Ohio have contended for the last ten years and to our surprise still such was his force and influence that he carried with him the approving voice of the sorely pressed Democracy of that unfortunate county This astonishing somersault has been heralded in all the sensational papers as [illegible] and the absolute transfer of all the heritage of white men to the enemy— the [illegible] of the Ohio Democracy to [illegible] or bankrupt shoddy [illegible] for its good name The infatuity that could sustain a proposition so preposterous is not far removed from the [illegible] that suggests the greatest perversion of true principles and the tamest acquiescence in the dirtiest fraud

* * * * *

It ill becomes Mr Vallandigham to nurse or nourish this federal reptile in his bosom and abandon to its mercy the adherents that cheerfully bore the brunt of principle when it was more odious than now but if he chooses he may be informed that he carries with him none of the strength that sustained him when support was contumely and devotion the synonym of destruction

Of such new departures we want none their stock is below par—and the venture to commit a great party to such idiosyncracies in behalf of that treacherous deity succ[ess] [illegible] in its component parts the frenzy of the fanatic to the silliness of the donkey

Some of the New Brunswick people are much excited over the Washington treaty, and threaten desperate things in the event of its going into effect The Fredericton Reporter says

"England has withdrawn almost every man and every gun from our shores And why then should we seek to continue a connection which is alike perilous to both parties — To continue this connection, we unhesitatingly affirm is to encourage annexation, since if England to save us from becoming the theatre of an international war, is obliged to make such treaties as this, whereby our most valued national source of wealth is to be given up to the Americans, then our people with one voice will say, let us follow the codfish."

The telegraph has brought the intelligence that Governor David Butler of Nebraska, who has been on trial before the State senate on an impeachment by the house, has been removed from office. The vote on the question has not been transmitted The impeachment was voted by the house several months ago, and the trial was had at that time, but before voting on the question of guilty or not guilty the court of impeachment adjourned for sixty days. The adjourned meeting began on Tuesday last and the vote was taken on Friday. During the whole progress of the trial Governor Butler has been under suspension, and the duties of the office have devolved on the Secretary of State. The charges against Governor Butler affected his personal integrity. The impeachment did not have a partisan origin, for it was originated in a Republican house and followed by conviction in a Republican Senate, against a Republican Governor. A large section of the party in the State was hostile to the Governor, it is true, but this hostility was due to his alleged misdeeds, which the Senate votes have been proved against him.

THE NEW ORLEANS FLOOD The water in the Lake and Canals at New Orleans is receding slowly The Canal crevasses have been closed and the water in the city has receded an inch The people in the overflowed district have suffered much, and collections are being taken for their relief

Twenty five hundred houses have their ground floors under water and more than that number of families are homeless and desolate The break began to threaten on Hogan Avenue Thursday night. The Canal Commissioners had sold to certain persons the right to remove dirt from the Levee to fill up vacant lots On Friday morning one of these men was at work with his cart carrying away the Levee at the very point where weakness was manifested. A colored man who remonstrated was driven away, and next morning a chasm 35 feet wide was opened in the banks Almost simultaneously another break occurred where the Jackson R R was taking out earth from the Levee The waste of waters extended as far as the eye could reach, broken only by the tops of trees and lines of houses and streets In some streets the water is five feet deep, and the houses have been thoroughly pillaged by thieves in skiffs and on rafts — The Mayor has appointed a committee of relief, and 6000 loves of bread per day are being gratuitously distributed The water had fallen Monday night 9 inches below the Canal surface The damage done, will probably be not less than $400,000 to $500 000 Suits will be entered against the Canal Commissioners for damages

RIDING AN ELEPHANT The New York Tribune makes a capital application of a recent happening out West It appears that on the occasion of a recent exhibition by a traveling menagerie in the village of Pottawatomie, Kansas, some of the braves, taking advantage of the darkness of night, stole the elephant and undertook to ride the animal about town But Old Emperor resented such treatment In a few minutes the air resounded with the crash of demolished wigwams and the shrieks of the terrified Indians It was not until he had trampled a large part of the village into ruins and driven the inhabitants out into the prairies that his keeper appeared upon the scene, and the father of all the animals was secured "The Southern Democrats" says the Tribune, "have just been trying to ride an elephant with similar results Their Old Emperor, Mr Jefferson Davis, was a picturesque and profitable feature in the Democratic menageries so long as he was securely hobbled and kept quiet in his corner Once in a while a cautious showman might walk him around the tent to the delight of the gaping rustics and small boys and occasionally he raised his trunk and emitted a mild roar, not at all alarming in itself, but suggestive of terrible possibilities — In an evil hour some unauthorized persons let the Old Emperor loose and what an uproar he has made! The new platforms which the Vallandigham Democrats built with so much pains have been knocked into splinters, Organizations have been scattered, and the Northern leaders run about screaming in the darkness and breaking their necks trying to get out of the animal's way His path is strewn with ruins, and before his rampage is over he will probably have done the Democracy more mischief than they can repair in another four years."

A WESTERN CYCLONE A terrible cyclone occurred near Mason City, Ill, on Friday morning An inky hued cloud or smoke like column was observed gathering near the earth's surface on an open prairie six miles from that place and from this column there soon shot out three narrower and spiral like cloud columns which continued to ascend rapidly until they reached and seemed to attach themselves closely to a passing cloud above and moved slowly towards Mason City but finally changing its course about a mile from that place An odor as of burning sulphur was plainly perceived and at 100 yards distance small flashes of electricity were constantly visible passing from the earth to the clouds and rapid crackling reports were heard like infantry firing in battle The pathway of the cyclone was nearly three miles in length and from 20 to 80 feet in width and in that pathway not a particle of vegetation was left alive For some distance the earth was literally ploughed to the depth of six inches The column of whirling air must have been intensely hot as every green thing in its path was dried to a crisp Another feature of the cyclone was, that while its rotary motion was inconceivably swift its progressive motion was not above six miles an hour Its outlines were so well defined that five feet from the outline of the total destruction of vegetation, not a vestige of its effects could be seen Fortunately no houses stood in its line of march

The retail traffic in spirituous liquors is notoriously very profitable to venders Ohio, copying herein from Iowa has taken measures to render it less remunerative by facilitating the indirect return of money spent for drink to the drinker, whereby the rhythmical motion of profit and loss may soon establish an equilibrium The first fruits of the law which enforces exemplary damages against liquor sellers on the application of the bibulous person's family have just been seen in the case of Charles German, of St Ansgar who had to pay $2070 to Mrs John A Todd for providing her husband with a little toddy

A FEARFUL TRAGEDY IN OHIO A few days since John H Hunter of Carson City, Mich went to the house of Robert Gargett, a farmer in Richfield township Summit Co, Ohio Hunter was a suitor of Gargett's daughter, and had recently been discarded — He met the old gentleman at the gate and demanded to see the young lady Upon being told that he could not see her, he drew a revolver and fired a bullet into Mr Gargett's head The mother, who was standing near by, cried out to her daughter,—"He has killed your father, fly! fly!" The daughter ran up stairs, and the murderer aimed at the mother, shooting her in the head and causing instant death He then shot the girl's brother, who barred his way, while the young lady sprang from a window and escaped Hunter is evidently getting ready for an acquittal on the ground of insanity, for he tore around the streets, pistol in hand, calling himself murderer, and extended his blood-stained hand to all he met "Shake hands with me," said he "see how it seems to shake the hand of a murderer." "I was determined to kill or marry her" "If you don't shake hands with me, I'll shoot you" "Hurrah for a murderer"— Finally a laborer tripped him up, and he was disarmed and arrested

A THREATENED MASSACRE A London dispatch says A telegram just received from Odessa contains information of a most alarming conspiracy in that city, the Russian citizens having determined at last to rid the city of the Jews at one blow, and formed a plot to massacre them The conspirators were to assemble, armed and in force, on a given day, and at a preconcerted signal were to fall upon the defenceless Jews and put them to the sword without mercy The plot was by some instrumentality revealed to the Jews, who communicated the information to the authorities; at the same time imploring their protection. Measures were taken with a view to arrest the leaders in the conspiracy In the meantime a terrible panic prevails among the entire Israelite population in the district.

Mass meetings will be held at once in all the principal cities of the Union, for the purpose of prevailing upon the President to invoke an urgent appeal to the Czar of Russia in behalf of the suffering Jews.

Mayor Adams of Portsmouth, N. H., was on Tuesday taken to the State Insane Asylum at Concord.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

Tad Lincoln has been very ill for the past three or four days with water on the lungs, but was slightly better Monday.

Secretary Fish authorizes the statement that he is not to be one of the arbitrators on the Alabama claims.

Sergeant Rose of West Point, connected with the United States army over 30 years, was buried from the chapel at that place on Sunday, with military honors

General Crook, who is to relieve General Stoneman from the command of the Department of Arizona, has started overland from San Diego for Tucson

The N Y Standard hears that Mr Greeley threatens to withdraw his name from Jeff Davis's bail bond, if the latter don't stop making such speeches as that at Augusta.

The New York Herald opens one of its very personal and slashing articles, with this sober and concise statement of a well known fact "The Republicans of this city are the most industrious set of disorganizers that have ever afflicted any political party in the United States

A Washington correspondent says the latest Southern papers received there contain comments on the recent speech of Jefferson Davis in Alabama. The Democratic papers all speak of it in glowing terms of praise, and say that in the present juncture of political affairs it is particularly acceptable to the Southern people

Hon Foster Blodgett, Senator elect from Georgia, says in reply to the charges made against him in the United States Senate by Hon Joshua Hill, that the latter, since his admission, has regularly caucussed with the Republicans and voted with the Democrats, and that in Washington he claims to be a Republican while in Georgia he is a sound Democrat

Referring to the report that Mr Vallandigham was in New York to confer with the Tammany chiefs some weeks ago, the Cincinnati Enquirer, which is Mr Pendleton's organ, says "Was the 'new departure' there and then definitely settled? Our own information was that the distinguished gentleman was on a quiet visit to Chief Justice Chase If he embraced the occasion to have several interviews with the chiefs of Tammany, he was sensible Chase, and Tammany, and Vallandigham! Well, what of it?"

A Tribune correspondent says that "among the negros of the upper and middle counties of South Carolina there is a widespread apprehension of some concerted hostile movement against them on the part of the white men, which may begin at any day The more intelligent have a definite theory of the character of this supposed plot, and believe that the purpose is to obtain political control of the State by means of a general massacre—a sort of St Bartholomew affair —to be undertaken by the Ku Klux and executed in a single night"

A correspondent who called upon President Grant a day or two since at his summer residence at Long Branch, says the popular belief in the taciturnity and reticence of the President is erroneous Gen Grant, he says, is only reserved in the presence of those whom he does not know, is silent only from policy, and has abundant tact There is not a more keenly observant man living, or one more capable of taking in at a glance and forming an instant and right opinion of a situation than the President "

The recent reports of difficulties and conflicts of authority between the War and Interior Departments on the Indian question, that a general Indian war is apprehended this summer and that assignments of military commanders will be changed to secure better enforcement of the Ku Klux bill, are all officially denied

Rare Chance.
A Valuable House for Sale,

The owner having removed from the city wishes to sell this house, situated on West Broadway It is a large new, two-story house with a French roof, and is furnished throughout in the best manner and with all the modern improvements It is situated on one of the pleasantest street in the city, and all of the surroundings are as good as could be found anywhere The lot contains about seven eighths of an acre (102 feet on the street, and about 350 feet back) and is all under a high state of cultivation The soil is very nice and light There are nearly all kinds of fruit trees and shrubbery on the lot, and a nice flower garden beside the house It is seldom that such a chance is offered to persons wishing to buy a nice house

It must be sold immediately For particulars inquire at No. 4, Broad Street, Bangor.

A Chapter of Facts

Space is valuable in a newspaper, and it is therefore proposed in this advertisement to condense a variety of facts, important to the public into a small compass Those facts refer to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—what that celebrated medicine is and what it will do In the first place, then, the article is a stimulant tonic and alterative, consisting of a combination of an absolutely pure spirituous agent with the most valuable medicinal vegetable substances that Botanic research has placed at the disposal of the chemist and the physician These ingredients are compounded with great care, and in such proportions as to produce a preparation which invigorates without exciting the general system and tones regulates and controls the stomach the bowels, the liver, and the minor secretive organs

What this great restorative will do must be gathered from what it has done The case of dyspepsia or any other form of indigestion, in which it has been persistently administered without effecting a radical cure is yet to be heard from and the same may be said of billious disorders, intermittent fever nervous affections general debility, constipation sick headache, mental disabilities to which the feeble are so subject It purifies all the fluids of the body, including the blood and the gentle stimulus which it imparts to the nervous system is not succeeded by the slightest reaction This is a chapter of facts which readers, for their own sakes, should mark and remember

TELEGRAPHIC TO THE Whig & Courier.

The Situation in Paris.

MODESTY OF THE ORLEANS PRINCES.

Death of Auguste Vermorel

A New Cabinet Formed.

THE ORLEANS PRINCES—DEATH OF VERMOREL—A NEW FRENCH LOAN.

Versailles, 5. It is the intention of the Orleans Princes to decline the seats to which they have been elected in the Assembly.

Auguste Vermorel, a well known radical journalist of Paris, is dead.

The members of the Diplomatic Corps are returning to Paris.

A French loan of £100,000,000 is proposed.

London, June 6.

A LETTER FROM GUIZOT

to day, advocates the validation of the elections to the Assembly of Duke D'Aumale and Prince D'Joinville, and the settlement of a form of government for France by a vote of the nation.

THE CABINETS.

Versailles, 6. The Official Journal announces the following appointments: Lambrecht, Minister of the Interior; M. LeFranc, Minister of Agriculture; General Cissey, Minister of War; Leon Say, Prefect of the Seine; and Gen. Leflo, Ambassador to St. Petersburg.

THE NEXT ELECTION.

The Official Journal also states that the time for holding a supplementary election has not yet been fixed. Tranquility prevails throughout France.

A PLEBISCITE DEMANDED.

The Constitutional says the first duty of the Assembly is to fill its own 120 seats, next to assume constituent powers, and finally to order a plebiscite for the determination of the future form of the government.

A MURDERER ARRESTED.

Schumacker, the murderer of Generals Lecompte and Clement Thomas, has been arrested.

The trial of Rochefort and Assy, has been postponed.

APPARATUS FOR BLOWING UP THE CITY.

Wires have been discovered in the sewers of Paris, intended to blow up the city. Gambetta is still at San Sebastian.

Versailles, 6. Thiers in his conference with the committee of the Assembly to consider the bill concerning the Orleans Princess urged that conditions be attached by which the Princes are not to hold office before the expiration of two years, and to be liable to expulsion from France, if they engaged in any intrigues looking to their restoration to the Throne. It now stated that Thiers has ceased to insist on these conditions.

The bill in the Assembly for rebuilding the column in Place Vendome, has been withdrawn.

Paris, 6. The postal service is completely restored.

It is announced that 20,000 Communist prisoners will be transferred to New Caledonia.

The discovery of important papers, rendering new indictments necessary, has delayed the trials by court martial at Versailles.

BONAPARTIST CANDIDATES—OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Paris, June 6. Several of the officials under the Empire will become candidates at the supplementary election for the Assembly,—The Verite thinks that all the Ministers who belonged to the government of the 4th of September should leave the present Cabinet. The same journal expresses its opposition to a plebiscite.

The Journal Des Debats praises the course pursued by the English Government and people during the war.

FORTRESSES

are proposed for the interior of Paris, to be located at Montmartre and Clarmont, and engineers have already commenced work upon them.

GREAT BRITAIN

London, 6. The Times welcomes Minister Schenck to England.

PARLIAMENT.

London, 6. The House of Lords have passed a bill authorizing Canada to organize Territorial governments in the country lying between the Dominion and the Pacific coast.

Advices from Hong Kong to May 26th, have been received. The ship Dolloras Uparu from Macao for Callao, was burned at sea and 600 coolies perished.

GERMANY.

Berlin, 6. The commercial relations between Germany and France have been restored to the same footing as before the war.

ITALY.

Rome. 6. An encyclical letter has been issued, calling on the Catholics throughout the world to give thanks to God on the occasion of the Popes jubilee.

By order of the Pope a solemn high mass was said to-day, in honor of the French priests assassinated in Paris.

ROMANIA.

Bucharest, 6. The session of the Romanian Chambers was opened to-day by Prince Charles, who received an enthusiastic reception.

HAVANA, June 6.

The Insurgents have killed the celebrated Colonel Miguel Perez and seven men, near Guantanamo. A small band of Insurgents have appeared near Trinidad.

POLITICAL.

CONCORD, N. H., June 6.

The number of politicians present precludes any personalities. They are all here, and Renel Durkee of Croydon, who would not doff his hat at Gen'l Grant's reception, is on the ground, to assist his friends. There is no reason to change the predictions of former dispatches. That Weston will be elected there is no doubt, but a majority of the House is made up as heretofore of Republicans; but for one reason or another they will coalesce with the Democrats.

The Republican Caucus to-night nominated James O. Adams of Manchester for Speaker, J. Benton Jr., of Lancaster, for Clerk; S. C. Clark of Guilford, Ass't Clerk: H. Roberts of Rollinsford, Sergeant-at-Arms; Moore & Langley of Nashua State Printers.

The Democratic Caucus is held with closed doors, no reporters or other than Representatives being admitted, the fusion of the Labor Reform and Democracy being under discussion. The nominations, however, are Wm. H. Gove of Weare, for Speaker; James R. Jackson of Littleton, Clerk; James N. Colbath of Barnstead, Ass't Clerk; A. J. Fogg of Concord, Sergeant-at-Arms.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.

The discontented colored laborers renewed their interference with the employees on the public works to-day, and several arrests were made. A large force of police preventing any dangerous outbreak.

The U. S. steamer Narragansett arrived at Rio De Janerio April 30th. All were well.

The receipts of Internal Revenue during June, so far, is $5,000,000 less than for the corresponding time last year.

The subscriptions to the new loan to-day, were $20,000.

The Internal Revenue bureau will change all the stamps on, or about the 1st of August, substituting two kinds of sensitive stamps, so that the use of acids to remove cancelling marks will destroy them beyond reissue, and the others will be printed in such colors as to prevent imitation by means of a photograph.

The delegates to the International Typographical Union of North America, now in session at Baltimore, arrived here this morning to accept an invitation from the Columbia Typographical Union of this territory to visit Mount [illegible] terest on the Potomac. [illegible]

Gov. [illegible] of South Carolina [illegible] the Ku-Klux committee [illegible] did not believe that they existed in his section of the State. He expressed the opinion that such an organization did exist in some of the counties of South Carolina, and its object was to intimidate the colored people from voting at the election in 1872. He believed that the Constitution of the council of safety published in the Charleston Republican last February, was the basis of the organization. He said that the Legislature had been extravagant, and some of its members were corrupted. He condemned the present election laws, and believed that they would be repealed. He thought that the white people were very blamable for the incompetency of the rulers, and inefficiency of legislation, because of their refusal to take part at the outset of reconstruction in the elections and since by trying to get the colored men to vote the Democratic ticket in opposition to their friends the Republicans. Governor Orr returns to South Carolina to-night.

NEW YORK ITEMS.

NEW YORK, June 6.

A MURDEROUS MEETING.

The Ship Europa which arrived to-day from Bremen, reports that on Sunday last she fell in with the brig J. L. Bowen of Quincy, Mass., four days from this port, for Gibraltar, whose crew had mutined, killing the Captain, J. O. Amesbury, the chief mate lay on the deck senseless and seriously wounded, the second mate had an arm broken and otherwise badly injured, and two men and a passenger were also seriously beaten. The mate of the Europa was put on board of the brig to bring her to this port. The brig is owned in this port by Capt. J. E. Ingraham, No. 23 South St. There were 6 seamen, all colored, and Capt. J. O. Amesbury, her commander, said "I guess I have a good set of men," one of them had been drinking, but of him it was remarked that he would soon come out of it. Capt. A. was an officer of long experience at sea and one who has never been liable to difficulty with his crew. The mate is named Jeremiah Sleeper, from Rockland, Me., and a nephew of the Captain. A passenger who is included among the injured men is a young Spanish gentleman from Cadiz. Capt. Ingraham has gone to the United States Marshal in expectation of procuring the services of a Revenue Cutter to take charge of the refractory crew when they arrive. The mutiny appears to have been a murderous assault, probably without provocation.

Commissioner White has decided to hold for extradition, Thomas Shea, Charles Carr Thomas Walsh and Robert Walsh, four seamen of the Maintoba, who attacked the captain and first mate, beating the former and stabbing the latter. Thomas Ward, John McDonald and Jeremiah Fitzpatrick, the other seamen complained of were discharged.

ARRIVAL OF THE PRESIDENT.

The President and Mrs. Grant, Miss Grant and Miss Cooke arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning, from Long Branch, and leave to-morrow morning for West Point.—Numerous politicians, office-seekers and others throng the hotel but only a few are granted an interview.

Recorder Hackett to-day, sentenced John Gilvery who recently, during service at St. Vincents, Catholic Church, attempted to cut down the crucifix and severely wounded a man who seized him, to seven years in Sing Sing prison.

J. Grau to-day, recovered $500 from Brignoli the well-known tenor singer who last fall engaged him to manage a season of opera in Chicago. The defence was, that Brignoli had an understanding with Grau that he was to be paid nothing until Brignoli made $500 per week, profit, which was never realized.

President Grant will return from West Point on Monday, and will soon go to Washington on official business.

The Atlantic Cable Company to-day, announced that the cable tariff for ten words will be ten dollars in gold, date, address and signature to be counted and paid for. The limit of messages to 50 words is removed, and press dispatches hereafter will be charged full rates.

The wife of Major-General John G. Foster who arrived in this city last evening, from Boston en route to duty on the Pacific Coast, died at the Astor House early this morning. Mrs. Foster was on her way to Baltimore to remain with her parents during the General's absence, and her remains will be taken to that city this evening.

TERRIBLE STORM IN GALVESTON, TEXAS.

GALVESTON, Texas, June 6.

A terrible storm has prevailed here since Saturday noon. The wind forced the water of the Gulf on to the island, covering to the depth of several feet the Southern part of the city. About two miles of the track of the Galveston, Houston and Henderson Railroad was washed away two miles above the city. The bridge across the bay is safe. The steamship Alabama with a cargo of cattle and sheep from Rockport for New Orleans, went ashore 20 miles west of here on Sunday and will probably be a total wreck. The bark Virginia Dove from Cardiff for Galveston with Railroad iron, went down about six miles east of here on Sunday night. A crew of fourteen men were taken yesterday from the masts where they had been posted since three o'clock on Sunday morning. Many of the buildings in the lower part of the city have been washed away. No lives were lost. The velocity of the wind on Sunday night at 10 o'clock was 39 miles an hour. Six inches of rain have fallen since Saturday at 2 P. M. A storm also prevailed at Houston and much damage has been done there. There were heavy rains at all the telegraph stations in the interior.

THE NEW ORLEANS FLOOD.

NEW ORLEANS, June 6.

The water remains stationary, one inch below the highest point reached. People continue moving from the overflowed district.

The President of the Gas-light Co. states that if the water continues at its present height two days longer the company will be unable to supply gas.

The city authorities and charitable committees continue the distribution of food, &c. to the needy.

HUNTING A VILLAIN.

CONCORD, N. H., June 6.

Last week a young lady named Mason, of Moultonborough, aged about 19, went to the office of Mr. H. P. Smith, in Meridith Village, to have some teeth filled. While under the influence of ether, which the doctor advised her to take, he committed a gross outrage on her person. Smith afterwards tried to hush the matter with money, but not succeeding, fled, and is pursued by officers and nearly the whole community. He is a prominent church member and a Good Templar.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

[illegible]

—Present—Mosquitoes.

—Lively—The singing birds.

—The flies are active and are having a busy season.

—A number of our residents have already left for the summer.

—A pleasant breeze prevailed yesterday and there was some comfort in living.

—Over 150 dogs have been licensed in this city, this year.

—Work on the lower end of the Main St. sewer has commenced.

—A. D. Lockwood, Esq., of Lewiston, is in town.

—The work of demolishing the old railroad bridge in Centre St., was commenced yesterday.

—A Boston paper gravely informs its readers that "ten miles of the Maine Central extension are graded in the vicinity of Bangor, and ready for the iron."

RENTZ FEMALE MINSTRELS will give an entertainment at Norombega Hall to-morrow evening—a novelty which will probably draw the patrons of this class of concerts.

—A very large and handsome stock of silver plated table ware is on exhibition and for sale at Patten's Auction Rooms, Mercantile Square.

—The striped bugs are going for the youthful cucumber and squash plants. Eternal vigilance and a pair of thick gloves are the price of prospective squash pies and pickles.

—The closing sale of watches, paintings, &c., will take place at Prescott's Auction Rooms to-day and to-morrow. See advertisement and notice in business column.

—"All signs fail in a dry time," said an Exchange St. merchant yesterday, as his new sign fell on the sidewalk from the hands of the workmen who was putting it up.

—The vicinity of Front street was enlivened yesterday by frequent blasts in the ledge, interspersed with explosions under water in the river. Both ledges will be much diminished in size before fall.

—We are indebted to Mr. John Lowell for a generous donation of large, ripe and luscious strawberries grown in the open air in his garden on Court street. Beat this, who can.

—That part of the Bangor and Piscataquis extension, from Foxcroft to Guilford has been located, and the survey of the line from Guilford to Moosehead Lake will be commenced at once.

—A day or two since a little child of Patrick Keefe, residing on Barker street, was playing with a calf, when the animal butted the child heels over head, breaking the embryo farmer's leg.

—We understand that arrangements have been perfected for the visit of the Lone Star base ball club of New Orleans to this city, the last of this month, when they will play a match game with the Atlantic Club of Bangor.

—An old fellow whose face was frescoed with the high colors resulting from a scrimmage with a less inebriated individual, was about the streets yesterday afternoon enquiring for a hotel. He found lodgings under the City Hall.

—Steamer Argo of New York, Capt. G. F. Kissam, will soon commence running between Rockland and Ellsworth, stopping at intermediate landings, making three trips per week and connecting with the Sanford steamers.

—Charles and Frank Dwinel have for sale a fine article of table vinegar, manufactured by Col. Jas. Dunning of pure cider and honey. The vinegar thus prepared is healthy, and perfectly free from the powerful acids and other deleterious substances with which most vinegar is adulterated.

—The house of Dennis Shaughnessy, on Front St., caught fire on the roof from sparks from the chimney, yesterday noon, but a stream of river water, sent up from the steamboat wharf by No. 3 hand tub, extinguished the flames with very little damage. One steamer was taken out, but its services were not needed.

—The yacht "Midnight," of about 12 tons, was seized as a smuggler at Spruce Head, yesterday afternoon, by Inspector Ulmer and brought to Portland. Several cases of foreign liquors were found on board of her and others had doubtless been disposed of before the officers seized her. Her crew consisted of the master and a boy.

DOUBTFUL. The Machias Republican thus "compliments" a couple of physicians in a certain town in Washington County:—

"Drs. —— and —— have lately performed a very delicate surgical operation, requiring very great skill. Though the patient died, nevertheless, we predict great success for them in the future, judging from the skill they displayed."

—The E. & N. A. Railway Company has fitted up two of the old B. O. & M. cars into "palace cars" which would astonish Pullman himself. One has been fitted with sleeping berths and the other with a table and cooking arrangements. The cars are to be used on the construction train on the upper end of the road, and occupied by the track layers.

—During the year ended in May just past, the churches of the Penobscot County Congregational Conference received sixty-one members, as follows:—Bangor First Parish, 2; Hammond St., 10; Central, 17; Brewer First Parish, 3; Brewer Village, 1; Hampden, 3; Holden, 1; Kenduskeag, 3; Oldtown, 2; Orono, 13; Total, 61. The next session of the Conference will be held at Dedham on the 13th and 14th of this month.

PRESENTATION. At the regular meeting of the Jameson Guards in their armory last evening, Sergeant Carlos Clark, in behalf of the Company, presented 2d Lieut. James Deane with a handsome sword and belt. Lieut. Deane has lately been promoted from Orderly Sergeant to the second Lieutenancy, vice Dole, promoted First Lieutenant in place of Lieut. B. H. Beale, deceased. The present took Lieut. Deane completely by surprise, as he was kept "in the dark" regarding it until he was ordered "to the front and centre."

BANGOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY. The public examination in the chapel yesterday forenoon was quite largely attended by the alumni and friends of the students, and was very creditable to the classes. In the evening the fifty-first anniversary of the Rhetorical Society and the Society of Enquiry, was observed by public exercises in the Hammond Street Church. The preliminary exercises comprised an organ voluntary, anthem by the choir, prayer by Rev. F. N. Peloubet of Attleboro', Mass., and a hymn sung by the choir and congregation, after which Rev. Dr. Peabody of Harvard University delivered an address on the subject, "What is the ground of Right." The address, though quite long, was very interesting and held the audience in close attention to the last.

This morning, the examination of the middle class will take place in the chapel.

In the afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the annual meeting of the alumni will be held in the vestry of the Hammond Street Church. A social prayer meeting will be held in connection with the meeting. [illegible]

In the evening, at [illegible] o'clock, in the First Parish Church, Prof. Leonard L. Paine will be formally inaugurated Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Pastoral Duties, and will deliver [illegible] address. [illegible] in the Central Church, French street. The graduating class numbers twelve members, three of whom are excused from speaking. The exercises will be interspersed with appropriate music.

RAILROAD WAR. The Portland Press says that something more than a "right smart competition" began Monday between the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth railroads and the Boston and Maine road. Through passengers by the accommodation trains, on calling for tickets were given tickets via the Eastern, but when preference was expressed for the "upper route," the usual facilities were cheerfully granted. When the express train on the B. & M., which left Boston at 8:40 a. m., arrived at the Junction, the P. S. & P. officers refused to bring it through to Portland, although the former arrived at the Junction about fifteen minutes in advance of the Eastern train which left Boston at the same time. The train was due in Portland at 12:15, and the passengers were detained until 3, when they were taken by the 12 m. train from Boston on the Eastern road, and arrived in Portland at 5 p. m. The Superintendent of the Boston & Maine sent back to a station for refreshments for the passengers, and they passed the hours as pleasantly as possible in laughing or the reverse, at their misfortunes. The P. S. & P. also refused to take out from Portland the Boston & Maine express at 3:30 p. m., and declined to make up a train (express) for the same route at 6 p. m. How the matter is to be adjusted does not appear at this time. It is possible that the authority of the Railroad Commissioners will be invoked. The Express train on the Boston & Maine which should have arrived in Portland at 10 p. m., was also left at the Junction, and did not arrive until 1 o'clock, yesterday morning. On its arrival, the B & M. agent provided carriages for all and a supper at the Falmouth Hotel for the non-residents.

The Boston and Maine Railroad have instituted legal proceedings against the Eastern Railroad for detaining their trains.

The State of Maryland on Monday sold its entire interest in the common stock of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, some 5500 shares, at $140 per share. The State loses two Directors in the Company.

The U. S. Signal Service is erecting an observatory twenty-two feet high on top of the Equitable Life Insurance block in New York, and by means of signals will inform mariners in port of the prevailing character of the weather.

Foster, the New York street car murderer, denies that he wrote the appeal recently published. A reporter wrote it and Foster signed it, on condition that it should not be printed without Judge Stuart's consent, which it is said was not given.

The 19th annual session of the International Typographical Union was held at Baltimore Monday, sixty-four Unions being represented. Among the delegates were Miss Mary Moore and Miss Lewis of the New York Union No. 1. W. J. Hammond of New Orleans was re-elected President.

A San Francisco paper says Mrs. Laura D. Fair takes the greatest pains with her toilet in prison, often changing her dress three or four times a day. She passes much of the time before her mirror, and, while admiring herself, says: "The more I see of myself, the more I am convinced I can never be hanged. Such a face and form as mine were never created for the gallows." She modestly asserts she was never so handsome as she is now.

FOREIGN NOTES.

Belleville, Lavallette and Montrouge are still patrolled, day and night.

An address to the Pope is circulating in the provinces, expressing the hope that regulated France will soon lend an avenging arm to the Holy Father.

It is rumored that Pyat was arrested at Paris on Monday. The Federalist Lieut. Col. Bonsier committed suicide just as he was about to be arrested.

La Liberte reports that an attempt has been made to assassinate the German Prefect of Strasbourg, who was fired at from a revolver and wounded.

The Independence Belge publishes a letter from Victor Hugo expressing his thanks to the five Deputies in the Belgian Chambers who voted for the order of the day, regretting the rigorous measures adopted by the Government for his expulsion from the country.

The newspapers of Versailles attack Minister Washburne, and charge him with having been in intimate friendly correspondence with Groussat, the Communist Minister of Foreign Affairs, while the latter was plotting against the government.

The influx of the people into Paris is enormous. 400,000 persons have entered the city since Saturday, including a large proportion of former citizens. Business is quickly reviving, and the streets present a livelier appearance.

The Deputies in the Assembly from Departments occupied by the German troops, intend to move that the disquieting debate in regard to the position of the Orleans Princes be postponed until the conclusion of the loan and the payment of the war indemnity has freed the country from the Germans.

Prince Metternich and nearly all the members of the Diplomatic Corps were present at the opening of the French Assembly Monday morning, in expectation of a debate on the right of the Orleans Princes to seats in the House. At the earnest request of Thiers, however, who pleaded ill health, and that the committee were not agreed, the subject was postponed till Thursday, when the abrogation of the decree of exile will also be considered.

In the [illegible] of the [illegible] Lefranc, Minister of Public Works; M. Lambrecht, Minister of the Interior; M. Cissey, Minister of War; Le Duc de Broglie, Minister of Foreign Affairs. MM. Jules Picard, Jules Favre and Gen. Leflo will be requested to resign.

P. S. & P. RAILROAD CO. The P. S. & P. Railroad Co. held the annual meeting at Kittery on Monday, and the following Directors were unanimously elected: Thornton K. Lothrop, Stephen H. Bullard and Nathaniel Hooper of Boston; S. L. Thorndike of Beverly, J. B. Brown and Charles S. Bartlett of Portland and Ichabod Goodwin of Portsmouth. Gov. Goodwin positively declined to be re-elected President, having served 27 years in that capacity.

THE INDIAN MASSACRE. Lieut. Whitman, U. S. A., Commanding at Camp Grant, Arizona, reports that the recent unprovoked massacre of the Apaches was the work of leading citizens of Tucson, with Mexicans and renegade Indians. He states that the survivors are still desirous of living at peace with the Government, and adduces as proof of their friendliness the fact that they had furnished the Quartertermaster's Department, nearly 150 tons of hay prior to the assault upon them.

The New York Herald, referring to the local differences among the Republicans of that city, characterizes them as an "industrious set of disorganizers." It says "they agree in nothing, and cannot even agree to disagree. What they are fighting about nobody knows, but it is certain that neither side has much sympathy from the masses of the party."

M. J. Carter writes the Rural New Yorker, that if those who have crib-biting horses will nail a sheep skin, wool side up, whenever there is a chance for a horse to bite, he will not do very much cribbing in the stable. His father has tried it successfully.

LIFE'S PITY

I think the pity of this life is love
For though my rosebud thrilling into life
Kissed by the love-beams of the glowing sun
Meets his fond gaze with her pure, tender eyes,
Filled with the rapture of a glad surprise
That from his light her glory shall be won
Yet when unto her very heart he sighs,
Behold she puts away her life—and dies

I think the pity of this life is love
Because to me but little joy has come
Of all that most I hoped would in the life ensue
For though the perfumed seasons come and go
The spring birds warble [illegible] the trees flow
[illegible] meet some love that to their own doth run,
My [illegible] of love hath bloomed for other eyes
And I am left to sorrow and to sighs.

I think the pity of this life is [illegible]
For from our love we gather all life's pain
And place too oft our hearts on earthly shrines
Where we would kneel—but when, alas! we fall!
Beneath a shadow ever past recall
We seek for gold, when 'tis but cross that shines
Then—if we may not turn our hearts above—
I know the pity of this life is love

HOUSE CLEANING

[Concluded]

We all ate heartily of our supper notwithstanding the eggs were fried until they were so crisp and brittle that they broke into bits in as much as looked at them, and the toast was burnt and the coffee not half boiled still, as I was so hungry it all tasted pretty good. After we had cleared away the table and piled the dishes away to be washed in the morning, we retired, and being so fatigued I did not awaken until a late hour in the morning. Norah was dismissed. Frank went to his office and I to my cleaning. Frank had the carpet shaken, and the parlor being dry I soon had it all tacked down, then moved the chairs in and began to dust the mantle ornaments, but, Oh horror! I let fall one of my loveliest vases and shivered it into a thousand fragments. A very bad beginning of the day I thought sorrowfully picking up the pieces.

Mamma cried a shrill voice "Is all jess up."

"Where are you Ted?" I called

"Here" cried Ted

"And where is 'here' you're in some mischief I'll be bound"

I heard Ted's chuckling laugh, and a great scrambling up the attic stairs. After I had thrown the shattered pieces of my vase away, I ran up stairs to see what he was doing. What a sight met my eyes! Ted was arrayed in my violet silk pinned up in front and trailing far behind on the floor, my white lace shawl around his shoulders and my best bonnet on his head. I stood transfixed for a moment while Ted went prancing round and round in the dust and dirt of the attic. Then I started after him. Of course he ran, screaming and laughing "Take care," I cried but too late he fell from the top to the bottom of the stairs.

Bump went my violet silk, bump bump went Ted. I flew down after him with my heart in my mouth, and picked up a little insensible heap of lace ribbons, silk and dirt. That fall saved Ted from a good whipping. I carried him down stairs and sprinkled him profusely with water, camphor, and eau de cologne until he opened his eyes, then I examined my ruined clothes. My dress was a mass of grease cobwebs and dust the front width was wretchedly torn with the pins, my shawl and bonnet were crushed and torn. I put them all away with a sigh of regret, and turned my attention once more to the perpetrator of this terrible deed. Just then some one knocked at the back door. On opening it I found a stout German girl on the step who talked so broken that I could scarcely understand her, but managed to comprehend enough to know that Frank had engaged her for me. I set her to work immediately to clean the china closet, and returned to my work in the parlor. Suddenly I heard a terrible crash in the dining room. "Heavens!" I exclaimed "what can have happened now?" and rushing out I found the frightened girl [illegible] her hands in a heart [illegible]. No wonder. She had upset the table on which all my shining glass and china was placed. Everything was literally smashed to pieces. My beautiful celery glasses! My goblets and tea set! My irreparable [illegible]! Was there ever such a poor afflicted mortal as I? Words failed me to express my feelings at that moment. I sat down perfectly stunned to witness the harrowing sight of all my [illegible] dishes swept away.

There came another knock at the door. This time an Irish girl made her appearance. I wondered if Frank intended to send a regiment to destroy my house. However I took Mary in and the first thing I told her to do was to [illegible] which had rung twice. I peeped through the door which was partly open and saw two ladies, but could not distinguish who they were.

[illegible] two women [illegible] wants to [illegible] said Ann giving the door a violent [illegible] my head

"Go tell them to excuse me," I said and [illegible] very dizzy from the blow, I [illegible] that Ann in her stupidity had left the sitting room door wide open, and as the ladies came out of the parlor they saw me plainly.

Oh mortification. I was all rags and dirt, but still I [illegible] somewhat reconciled to my misfortunes by this time.

When Frank came up to supper the hall was very dark. Ann was putting down the [illegible] Frank forgot all about the new servant [illegible] in the darkness mistook the new Irish girl for me and kissed her. Ann screamed [illegible] and fell over a chair. Frank [illegible] and swore [illegible] he would [illegible] him than where a woman was [illegible] wondered why couldn't have the hall lighted. To all this I made no reply but smiled grimly. Being so over whelmed with my own griefs I did not care if Frank kissed every servant girl in the United States.

[illegible] morning the German girl left [illegible] she was fearful she should encounter [illegible] again. Ann remained and [illegible] to finish up the havoc. The day was gloriously begun by Ann who succeeded charmingly in breaking the globes of the chandelier and then upsetting my gold fish on the carpet to say nothing of the water. I believe I shook or slapped the girl I don't remember which. Ann was so astonished at seeing me fly into such a passion that she backed up against the window and thrust her clumsy foot through my lace curtain. This was the grand finale. I burst into tears and [illegible] hearing the sobs [illegible] running in and not knowing what to make of it joined in and swelled the chorus. Amidst one of our longest and loudest wails the street door suddenly flew open, and in walked my Aunt Thankful with several dozen carpet bags and bundles prepared evidently for a long visit

In the name of all that's wonderful!" she shrieked letting all her traps fall "What has happened? Is Frank dead, Ted scalded or the house on fire?"

I made no reply, but sobbed heedlessly on "Hattie!" cried Aunt Thankful in an awful voice "Answer me immediately. What is the matter?"

"My lace curtain" I gurgled out

Aunt Thankful put on her spectacles sat down on the floor and examined it. "Silly puss, she mumbled "I can darn that in ten minutes"

"Yes with blue stocking yarn," I said and began to laugh sarcastically, and then I laughed and laughed. Ann laughed, and Ted laughed. Poor Aunt Thankful stared at us in horror and said

Good Heavens! they are all stark mad and jumping up off the floor she seized my arm and dragged me into the bedroom, and put me to bed then went out and locked the door and left me alone. I went to sleep. When I awoke Aunt Thankful was sitting by the bed sewing

"Aunt Thankful," I said "when did you come?"

"Yesterday morning," she replied

"What time is it now?" I inquired

"Three o'clock," answered Aunt Thankful

"I have slept several hours, then," I said "Was I asleep when you came?"

"I should rather think not, when I came you were crazy and I put you to bed. You slept all the rest of the day and night until this blessed minute, and if you hadn't been put to bed you would have been in the insane asylum now"

I began to laugh. Aunt Thankful glared at me and said

"If you laugh any more I will put you in the cellar, and feed you on bread and water for a week"

This not being a pleasant prospect I subsided

"You are a precious woman to clean house" continued she "I should have thought a child would know better than to commence to clean right in the middle of the house. You should commence in the attic and go down. You don't know that after you have got through with the down stairs the dirt from the attic will make it all dirtier than ever?"

"I never thought of that," I answered meekly

"And then to begin when it's cold enough to freeze. It's a wonder you didn't have the lung fever, or something worse," went on Aunt Thankful.

"I must get up and clean the attic," I said.

"No, you won't," said Aunt Thankful, "for I cleaned it myself"

"Well, there are the rest of the carpets to put down."

"They're all down," [illegible]

"And the pictures?"

"All hung."

I gave a great sigh of relief. What would have done if it had not been for Aunt Thankful! She had accomplished in one day what it would have taken me a week to perform, but then I never could bob around like Aunt Thankful; she seems to be made of wire. I have learned since then to take Aunt Thankful's advice, never to commence cleaning until the weather is warm, and never to commence at the wrong end of the house

But it is such a mortification to think that my new plan was a total failure

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES

Passed by the Third Session of the Forty first Congress.

[General Nature—No. 31]

AN ACT to amend an act approved May thirty one eighteen hundred and seventy, entitled "An act to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union, and for other purposes"

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section twenty of the "Act to enforce the rights of citizens of the United States to vote in the several states of the Union, and for other purposes" approved May thirty one eighteen hundred and seventy shall be, and hereby is, amended so as to read as follows

SEC 20 And be it further enacted, That if at any registration of voters for an election for Representatives or Delegate in the Congress of the United States any person shall knowingly personate and register or attempt to register, in the name of any other person whether living, dead or fictitious, or fraudulently register, or fraudulently attempt to register not having a lawful right so to do, or do any unlawful act to secure registration for himself or any other person or by force, threat, menace, intimidation, bribery, reward, or offer, or promise thereof, or other unlawful means, prevent or hinder any person having a lawful right to register from duly exercising such right, or compel or induce by any such means, or other unlawful means, any officer of registration to admit to registration any person not legally entitled thereto, or interfere in any manner with any officer of registration in the discharge of his duties, or by any such means, or other unlawful means, induce any officer of registration to violate or refuse to comply with his duty or any law regulating the same or if any such officer shall knowingly and wilfully register as a voter any person not entitled to be registered, or refuse to so register any person entitled to be registered, or if any such officer or other person whose duty it is to perform any duty in relation to such registration or election or to ascertain, announce, or declare the result thereof or give or make any certificate, document or evidence in relation thereto, shall knowingly neglect or refuse to perform any duty required by law or violate any duty imposed by law or do any act unauthorized by law relating to or affecting such registration or election or the result thereof, or any certificate, document or evidence in relation thereto or if any person shall aid counsel, procure or advise any such voter person or officer to do any act hereby made a crime, or to omit any act the omission of which is hereby made a crime every such person shall be deemed guilty of a crime and shall be liable to prosecution and punishment therefor as provided in section nineteen of said act of May thirty-one eighteen hundred and seventy, for persons guilty of any of the crimes therein specified. Provided That every registration made under the laws of any State or Territory for any State or other election at which such Representative or Delegate in Congress shall be chosen shall be deemed to be a registration within the meaning of this act notwithstanding, the same shall also be made for the purposes of any State territorial, or municipal election.

SEC 2 And be it further enacted That whenever in any city or town having upward of twenty thousand inhabitants there shall be two citizens thereof who, prior to any registration of voters for an election for Representative or Delegate in the Congress of the United States or prior to any election at which a Representative or Delegate in Congress is to be voted for shall make known in writing to the judge of the circuit court of the United States for the circuit wherein such city or town shall be their desire to have such registration, or said election, or both guarded and scrutinized it shall be the duty of the said judge of the circuit court within not less than ten days prior to said registration, if one there be or if no registration be required, within not less than ten days prior to said election to open the said circuit court at the most convenient point in said circuit. And the said court, when so opened by said judge shall proceed to appoint and commission from day to day and from time to time, and under the hand of said circuit judge, and under the seal of said court for each election district or voting precinct in each and every such city or town as shall in the manner herein prescribed have applied therefor, and to revoke change or renew said appointment from time to time two citizens, residents of said city or town who shall be of different political parties and able to read and write the English language and who shall be known and designated as supervisors of election. And the said circuit court when opened by the said circuit judge as required herein shall therefrom and thereafter and up to and including the day following the day of election, be always open for the transaction of business under this act and the powers and jurisdiction hereby granted and conferred shall be exercised as well in vacation as in term time and a judge sitting at chambers shall have the same powers and jurisdiction including the power of keeping order and of punishing any contempt of his authority as when sitting in court

SEC 3 And be it further enacted That whenever from sickness, injury or otherwise, the judge of the circuit court of the United States in any judicial circuit shall be unable to perform and discharge the duties by this act imposed it shall be his duty, and he is hereby required to select and to direct and assign to the performance thereof in his place and stead such one of the judges of the district courts of the United States within his circuit as he shall deem best, and upon such selection and assignment being made it shall be lawful for and shall be the duty of the district judge so designated to perform and discharge in the place and stead of the said circuit judge all the duties powers and obligations imposed and conferred upon the said circuit judge by the provisions of this act

SEC 4 And be it further enacted That it shall be the duty of the supervisors of election appointed under this act and they and each of them are hereby authorized and required to attend at all times and places fixed for the registration of voters who being registered would be entitled to vote for a Representative or Delegate in Congress and to challenge any person offering to register to attend at all times and places when the names of registered voters may be marked for challenge and to cause such names registered as they shall deem proper to be so marked to make when required the lists or either of them provided for in section thirteen of this act and verify the same and upon any occasion and at any time when in attendance under the provisions of this act to personally inspect and scrutinize such registry and for purposes of identification to affix their or his signature to each page of every copy of the original list and of each and every copy of any such list of registered voters at such times upon each day when any name may or shall be received entered or registered and in such manner as will in their or his judgment, detect and expose the improper or wrongful removal therefrom or addition thereto in any way of any name or names

SEC 5 And be it further enacted That it shall also be the duty of the said supervisors of election, and they and each of them are hereby authorized and required, to attend at all times and places for holding elections of Representatives or Delegates in Congress and for counting the votes cast at said elections to challenge any vote offered by any person whose legal qualifications the supervisors or either of them shall doubt to be and remain where the ballot boxes are kept at all times after the polls are open until each and every vote cast at said time and place shall be counted, the canvass of all votes polled be wholly completed, and the proper and requisite certificates or returns made whether said certificates or returns be required under any law of the United States or any State territorial or municipal law and to personally inspect and scrutinize from time to time and at all times on the day of election the manner in which the voting is done and the way and method in which the poll books, registry lists and tallies or check books whether the same are required by any law of the United States or any State territorial or municipal law are kept and to the end that each candidate for the office of Representative or Delegate in Congress shall obtain the benefit of every vote for him cast the said supervisors of election are and each of them is hereby required in their or his respective election districts or voting precincts to personally scrutinize count and canvass each and every ballot in their or his election district or voting precinct cast, whatever may be the indorsement on said ballot or in whatever box it may have been placed or be found to make and forward to the officer who in accordance with the provisions of section thirteen of this act, shall have been designated as the chief supervisor of the judicial district in which the city or town wherein they or he shall serve shall be such certificates and returns of all such ballots as said officer may direct and require and to attach to the registry list, and any and all copies thereof and to any certificate, statement, or return, whether the same or any part or portion thereof be required by any law of the United States, or of any State territorial or municipal law, any statement touching the truth or accuracy of the registry or the truth or fairness of the election and canvass which the said supervisors of election or either of them may desire to make or attach, or which should properly and honestly be made or attached, in order that the facts may become known, any law of any State or Territory to the contrary notwithstanding

SEC 6 And be it further enacted, That the better to enable the said supervisors of election to discharge their duties, they are, and each of them is, hereby authorized and directed, in their or his respective election districts or voting precincts on the day or days of registration, on the day or days when registered voters may be marked to be challenged and on the day or days of election to take, occupy, and remain in such position or positions, from time to time, whether before or behind the ballot boxes as will, in their judgment, best enable them or him to see each person offering himself for registration or offering to vote and as will best conduce to their or his scrutinizing the manner in which the registration or voting is being conducted and at the closing of the polls for the reception of votes, they are, and each of them is hereby required to place themselves or himself in such position in relation to the ballot boxes for purpose of engaging in the work of canvassing the ballots in said boxes contained as will enable them or him to fully perform the duties in respect to such canvass provided in this act, and shall there remain, until every duty in respect to such canvass certificates returns, and statements shall have been wholly completed, any law of any State or Territory to the contrary notwithstanding

SEC 7 And be it further enacted, That if in any election district or voting precinct in any city, town or village, for which there shall have been appointed supervisors of election for any election at which a Representative or Delegate in Congress shall be voted for, the said supervisors of election, or either of them, shall not be allowed to exercise and discharge fully and freely, and without bribery, solicitation, interference, hinderance, molestation, violence or threats thereof on the part of or from any person or persons, each and every of the duties, obligations and powers conferred upon them by this act and the act hereby amended, it shall be the duty of the supervisors of election, and each of them, to make prompt report, under oath, within ten days after the day of election, to the officer who, in accordance with the provisions of section thirteen of this act, shall have designated as the chief supervisor of the judicial district in which the city or town wherein they or he served shall be, of the manner and means by which they were, or he was not so allowed to fully and freely exercise and discharge the duties and obligations required and imposed by this act. And upon receiving any such report, it shall be the duty of the said chief supervisor, or, acting both in such capacity and officially as a commissioner of the circuit court, to forthwith examine into all the facts thereof, to subpoena and compel the attendance before him of any witnesses, administer oaths and take testimony in respect to the charges made, and prior to the assembling of the Congress for which any such Representative or Delegate was voted for, to have filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States all the evidence by him taken, all information by him obtained, and all reports to him made

SEC 8 And be it further enacted, That whenever an election at which Representatives or Delegates in Congress are to be chosen shall be held in any city or town of twenty thousand inhabitants or upward, the marshal of the United States for the district in which said city or town is situated shall have power, and it shall be his duty, on the application, in writing, of at least two citizens residing in any such city or town, to appoint special deputy marshals, whose duty it shall be, when required as provided in this act, to aid and assist the supervisors of election in the verification of any list of persons made under the provisions of this act, who may have registered, or voted, or either; to attend in each election district or voting precinct at the times and places fixed for the registration of voters, and at all times and places when and where said registration may by law be scrutinized, and the names of registered voters be marked for challenge; and also to attend, at all times for holding such elections [illegible] the polls [illegible] the duty of such special deputies, to keep the peace, and support and protect the supervisors of elections in the discharge of their duties, preserve order at such places of registration and at such polls, prevent fraudulent registration and fraudulent voting thereat, or fraudulent conduct on the part of any officer of election, and immediately, either at said place of registration, or polling-place, or elsewhere, and either before or after registering or voting, to arrest and take into custody, with or without process any person who shall commit, or attempt or offer to commit, any of the acts or offenses prohibited by this act, or the act hereby amended, or who shall commit any offense against the laws of the United States. Provided, That no person shall be arrested without process for any offense not committed in the presence of the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them, or of the supervisors of election, or either of them, and, for the purposes of arrest or the preservation of the peace the supervisors of election, and each of them, shall, in the absence of the marshal's deputies or if required to assist said deputies have the same duties and powers as deputy marshals. And provided further That no person shall, on the day or days of any such election, be arrested without process for any offense committed on the day or days of registration

SEC 9 And be it further enacted, That whenever any arrest is made under any provision of this act, the person so arrested shall forthwith be brought before a commissioner, judge or court of the United States for examination of the offences alleged against him, and such commissioner, judge, or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States

SEC 10 And be it further enacted That whoever, with or without any authority power, or process, or pretended authority, power or process, of any State territorial or municipal authority, shall obstruct hinder, assault or by bribery solicitation, or otherwise, interfere with or prevent the supervisors of election, or either of them, or the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them, in the performance of any duty required of them, or either of them, or which he or they, or either of them, may be authorized to perform by any law of the United States, whether in the execution of process or otherwise, or shall by any of the means before mentioned hinder or prevent the free attendance and presence at such places of registration or at such polls of election or full and free access and egress to and from any such place of registration or poll of election or in going to and from any such place of registration or poll of election, or to and from any room where any such registration or election or canvass of votes or of making any returns or certificates thereof, may be had or shall molest interfere with, remove, or eject from any such place of registration or poll of election, or of canvassing votes cast thereat or of making returns or certificates thereof any supervisor of election the marshal or his general or special deputies, or either of them or shall threaten or attempt or offer so to do or shall refuse or neglect to aid and assist any supervisor of election or the marshal or his general or special deputies or either of them, in the performance of his or their duties when required by him or them or either of them to give such aid and assistance he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable to instant arrest without process and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not more than two years or by fine not more than three thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment and shall pay the costs of the prosecution. Whoever shall, during the progress of any verification of any list of the persons who may have registered or voted and which shall be had or made under any of the provisions of this act refuse to answer or refrain from answering, or answering shall knowingly give false information in respect to any inquiry lawfully made, such person shall be liable to arrest and imprisonment as for a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or by fine not to exceed one hundred dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall pay the costs of the prosecution

SEC 11 And be it further enacted, That whoever shall be appointed a supervisor of election or a special deputy marshal under the provisions of this act and shall take the oath of office as such supervisor of election or such special deputy marshal, who shall thereafter neglect or refuse without good and lawful excuse, to perform and discharge fully the duties obligations, and requirements of such office until the expiration of the term for which he was appointed shall not only be subject to removal from office with loss of all pay or emoluments but shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year or by fine not less than two hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars or both fine and imprisonment, and shall pay the costs of prosecution

SEC 12 And be it further enacted, That the marshal or his general deputies, or such special deputies as shall be thereto specially empowered by him, in writing, and under his hand and seal whenever he or his said general deputies or his special deputies or either or any of them, shall be forcibly resisted in executing their duties under this act, or the act hereby amended, or shall by violence, threats or menaces, be prevented from executing such duties or from arresting any person or persons who shall commit any offense for which said marshal or his special deputies are authorized to make such arrest are and each of them is hereby empowered to summon and call to his or their aid the bystanders or posse comitatus of his district

SEC 13 And be it further enacted That it shall be the duty of each of the circuit courts of the United States in and for each judicial circuit upon the recommendation in writing of the judge thereof to name and appoint on or before the first day of May in the year eighteen hundred and seventy one and thereafter as vacancies may from any cause arise from among the circuit court commissioners in and for each judicial district in each of said judicial circuits one of such officers who shall be known for the duties required of him under this act as the chief supervisor of elections of the judicial district in and for which he shall be a commissioner and shall so long as faithful and capable discharge the duties in this act imposed and whose duty it shall be to prepare and furnish all necessary books forms blanks and instructions for the use and direction of the supervisors of election in the several cities and towns in their respective districts to receive the applications of all parties for appointment to such positions and upon the opening as contemplated in this act of the circuit court for the judicial circuit in which the commissioner so designated shall act to present such applications to the judge thereof and furnish information to said judge in respect to the appointment by the said court of such supervisors of election to require of the supervisors of election where necessary lists of the persons who may register and vote, or either in their respective election districts or voting precincts and to cause the names of those upon any such list whose right to register or vote is honestly doubted to be verified by proper inquiry and examination at the respective places by them assigned as their residences and to receive preserve and file all oaths of office of said supervisors of election and of all special deputy marshals appointed under the provisions of this act and all certificates, returns reports and records of every kind and nature contemplated or made requisite under and by the provisions of this act save where otherwise herein specially directed. And it is hereby made the duty of all United States marshals and commissioners who shall in any judicial district perform any duties under the provisions of this act or the act hereby amended, relating to concerning or affecting the election of Representatives or Delegates in the Congress of the United States to from time to time and with all due diligence forward to the chief supervisors in and for their judicial district all complaints examinations and records pertaining thereto and all oaths of office by them administered to any supervisor of election or special deputy marshal in order that the same may be properly preserved and filed

SEC 14 And be it further enacted That there shall be allowed and paid to each chief supervisor for his services as such officer the following compensation apart from and in excess of all fees allowed by law for the performance of any duty as circuit court commissioner. For filing and caring for every return report record document or other paper required to be filed by him under any of the provisions of this act ten cents for affixing a seal to any paper record report or instrument twenty cents, for entering and indexing the records of his office, fifteen cents per folio, and for arranging and transmitting to Congress as provided for in section thirteen of this act, any report, statement record, return or examination, for each folio fifteen cents and for any copy thereof or of any paper on file, a like sum. And there shall be allowed and paid to each and every supervisor of election and each and every special deputy marshal who shall be appointed and shall perform his duty under the provisions of this act, compensation at the rate of five dollars per day for each and every day he shall have actually been on duty, not exceeding ten days. And the fees of the said chief supervisors shall be paid at the Treasury of the United States, such accounts to be made out verified examined, and certified as in the case of accounts of commissioners save that the examination or certificate required may be made by either the circuit or district judge

SEC 15 And be it further enacted That the jurisdiction of the circuit court of the United States shall extend to all cases in law or equity arising under the provisions of this act or the act hereby amended, and if any person shall receive any injury to his person or property for or on account of any act by him done under any of the provisions of this act or the act hereby amended, he shall be entitled to maintain suit for damages therefor in the circuit court of the United States in the district wherein the party doing the injury may reside or shall be found

SEC 16 And be it further enacted, That in any case where suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, shall be commenced in a court of any State against any officer of the United States or other person, for or on account of any act done under the provisions of this act, or under color thereof or for or on account of any right, authority, or title set up or claimed by such officer or other person under any of said provisions, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such suit or prosecution, at any time before trial, upon a petition to the circuit court of the United States in and for the district in which the defendant shall have been served with process, setting forth the nature of said suit or prosecution, and verifying the said petition by affidavit, together with a certificate signed by an attorney or counsellor at law of some court of record of the State in which such suit shall have been commenced, or of the United States, setting forth that as counsel for the petitioner he has examined the proceedings against him, and has carefully inquired into all the matters set forth in the petition, and that he believes the same to be true which petition, affidavit, and certificate shall be presented to the said circuit court, if in session, and if not, to the clerk thereof at his office, and shall be filed in said office, and the cause shall thereupon be entered on the docket of said court, and shall be thereafter proceeded in as a cause originally commenced in that court, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of said court if the suit was commenced in the court below by summons, to issue a writ of certiorari to the State court, requiring said court to send to the said circuit court the record and proceedings in said cause, or, if it was commenced by capias, he shall issue a writ of habeas corpus cum causa, a duplicate of which said writ shall be delivered to the clerk of the State court, or left at his office by the marshal of the district, or his deputy, or some person duly authorized thereto, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the said State court to stay all further proceedings in such cause, and the said suit or prosecution, upon delivery of such process, or leaving the same as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be moved to the said circuit court, and any further proceedings, trial, or judgment therein in the State court shall be wholly null and void, and any person, whether an attorney or officer of any State court, or otherwise, who shall thereafter take any steps, or in any manner proceed in the State court in any action so removed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to trial and punishment in the court to which the action shall have been removed, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year, or by fine not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall in addition thereto be amenable to the said court to which said action shall have been removed as for a contempt, and if the defendant in any such suit be in actual custody or mesne process therein, it shall be the duty of the marshal, by virtue of the writ of habeas corpus cum causa, to take the body of the defendant into his custody, to be dealt with in the said cause according to the rules of law and the order of the circuit court, or of any judge thereof in vacation. And all attachments made and all bail or other security given upon such suit or prosecution shall be and continue in like force and effect as if the same suit or prosecution had proceeded to final judgment and execution in the State court. And if, upon the removal of any such suit or prosecution, it shall be made to appear to the said circuit court that no copy of the record and proceedings therein in the State court can be obtained, it shall be lawful for said circuit court to allow and require the plaintiff to proceed de novo and to file a declaration of his cause of action, and the parties may thereupon proceed as in actions originally brought in said circuit court, and on failure of so proceeding, judgment of non prosequitur may be rendered against the plaintiff, with costs for the defendant.

SEC 17 And be it further enacted, That in any case in which any party is or may be by law entitled to copies of the record and proceedings in any suit or prosecution in any State court, to be used in any court of the United States, if the clerk of said State court shall, upon demand and the payment or tender of the legal fees, refuse or neglect to deliver to such party certified copies of such record and proceedings, the court of the United States in which such record and proceedings may be needed, on proof by affidavit that the clerk of such State court has refused or neglected to deliver copies thereof on demand as aforesaid, may direct and allow such record to be supplied by affidavit or otherwise, as the circumstances of the case may require and allow, and thereupon such proceeding, trial, and judgment may be had in the said court of the United States and all such processes awarded, as if certified copies of such records and proceedings had been regularly before the said court, and hereafter in all civil actions in the courts of the United States either party thereto may notice the same for trial

SEC 18 And be it further enacted, That sections five and six of the act of the Congress of the United States approved July fourteen, eighteen hundred and seventy, and entitled "An act to amend the naturalization laws, and to punish crimes against the same," be, and the same are hereby, repealed, but this repeal shall not affect any proceeding or prosecution now pending for any offense under the said sections, or either of them, or any question which may arise therein respecting the appointment of the persons in said sections or either of them provided for or the powers, duties or obligations of such persons

SEC 19 And be it further enacted That all votes for Representatives in Congress shall hereafter be by written or printed ballot any law of any State to the contrary notwithstanding and all votes received or recorded contrary to the provisions of this section shall be of none effect

PILES.

Many a person has suffered for years with Internal Bleeding External or Itching Piles and has tried over and over again for a remedy to cure but in vain. This used to be, but things are changed, improvements have been made and wonderful discoveries—one of the most important of the greatest benefit to mankind is Briggs's Pile Remedies which are warranted to cure Piles in every form if used in time according to directions

CORNS! CORNS!

What is more annoying than Corns? What can be more oppressive than Bunions? What is more painful than Ingrowing Nails? Let the victim answer. The most distressing of these torments can be immediately relieved and quickly cured with Dr J Briggs's Alleviator and Curative

LUNG DISEASES!

Diseases, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, &c—The above complaints seem to be increasing in prevalence, and if not taken in time, may lead to that dreadful and fatal disease, consumption. What criminality to neglect them when the result may be so terrible! Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer is a positive remedy for all diseases of the throat, lungs and chest—never failing when used in the morning of affliction

NEURALGIA

Headache, Neuralgia and Nervous Diseases. The wonderful effects of Dr J Briggs's Alleviator for the speedy cure of the above very prevalent and painful afflictions, is known to many thousands who have used it with the most unqualified success.

OF GOOD

Timber Land

For Sale at a Low Rate,

Situated on Moose River in the town of Greig Lewis County New York

Said timber consisting of White Hemlock Spruce Pine and [illegible]. The subscribers own two large tanneries located on the aforesaid tract which will consume the hemlock bark thus enabling the land and timber to be purchased at a comparatively cheap rate. The timber is excellent in quality in all particulars. The aforesaid tract of land is easy of access being only from six to fifteen miles from both the Black River R R and Black River Canal which lead direct to the Albany Market. The land is comparatively level well watered and good for farming purposes. Moose River, which extends through the tract is a large stream and empties in to Black River. At this point or junction of the rivers is a fall of sixty (60) feet, over which the waters of the rivers flow, thus forming an unlimited water power (we might say right in the Canal and at the Depot) to which Moose River will carry the immense amount of timber from the aforesaid lands

Any parties desiring to manufacture lumber will do well to give this rare opportunity their attention. The land and timber can be purchased at a cheap rate or the timber alone permitted
